Lords procedure determination Informed by Part 1 of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006 Component procedure The Divegated Powers and Regulatory Reform
Committee (DPRRC)
agrees the instrument should follow the superaffirmative procedure The Delegated Powers and Regulatory Reform
Committee (DPRRC)
recommends that the instrument should be upgraded to the super-affirmative
procedure The Delegated Powers and Regulatory Reform
Committee (DPRRC)
agrees the
instrument should follow the affirmative The Divegated Powers and Regulatory Reform
Committee (DPRRC)
recommends that the
instrument should be upgraded to the The Deegated Powers and Regulatory Reform
Committee (DPRRC)
agrees the
instrument should follow the negative procedure Motion to disagree with the recommendation
made by the Delegated Powers and Regulatory
Reform Committee
(DPRRC) Motion to disagree

with the

recommendation
made by the
Delegated Powers
and Regulatory
Reform Committee (DPRRC) lapsed at end of session House resolves against committee recommendation House of Lords agrees to the affirmative procedure